

Please do not change the wisconsin no call list. why tamper with something that works. I do not want banking companies calling me for up to 18 months. This completely goes against the whole idea of a no call list. thank you